

Revolutionary design.

It may look like a refined oversized pendant lamp, but actually Dama performs its suction function to the fullest, thanks to the Circle.Tech technology with is equipped that uses materials of natural origin, such as zeolite and activated charcoal, to retain odours with maximum effectiveness. Available in a range of metal finishes, including copper and painted steel, the hood features a streamlined design enhanced by an LED ambient light.

A unique synthesis of function and emotion, born of Falmec's research to offer exceptional results in suction, filtration and silence, with an original approach to design.
